

Buck A Book! All You Need to Know

The Buck a Book Literacy Campaign raises funds for adult literacy programs while inspiring K-5 students in the Carlisle Area School District to read and get involved in the community. Buck a Book Kids read lots of great books while gathering pledges of support for adult literacy. All money collected helps fund adult education programming provided to the community by the Employment Skills Center.

Important Events & Dates

January 7th – 30th #WordyHelpsOut Take a picture of Wordy the Worm helping out at home or in the community and email them to aaronm@carliseschools.org to be featured in our school-wide display.

January 14th Buck A Book Kick Envelopes All families will receive a Buck A Book Fundraising envelope to collect donations throughout the month of January.

January 14th – 18th Coin Wars Bring in coins from home to donate to Buck a Book. The grade level with the most coins will earn a movie and snack.

January 22nd – 25th Plinko Fundraiser Games of Plinko will be sold for 50¢ during all lunches. Students will earn points for each play that they can cash in for assorted prizes.

January 23rd It's a New Year, Let's Volunteer Family Night Our next family night will feature literacy activities, opportunities to volunteer, a pizza dinner, and student performances of their original Wordy Worm stories from 4:30-6:00 at LeTort.

January 31st Buck A Book Envelopes Due All fundraising money and envelopes are due to classroom teachers.

Thank you for supporting LeTort, the Buck A Book Campaign, and our local community!
